To serve the needs of physically and intellectually disabled individuals, in community based environments that are accessible and inclusive, based on the principle that regardless of our physical and mental attributes we all have the ability to learn, to give and to grow. Partners in Adventure (PIA) provides unique experiences to young people with and without disabilities, that help them build personal partnerships while safely exploring, lending a helping hand and learning more about the world and one another. PIA accomplishes this by providing fully accessible, adaptive, inclusive and totally non-competitive year-round programming and partnering for teens and young adults with a full range of physical and developmental abilities.
