Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2, Monitoring Procedures:

We make monetary and food grants to those residents who meet our income eligibility standards. Applicants complete a paper application, which is reviewed. Results of personal interviews are recorded on the application. All paper applications are kept on file for a minimum of three years.

Utility, fuel, rent and education assistance are all paid by check on the applicant's behalf to local creditors. Food assistance is perishable, non-perishable and frozen foods that are given directly to the applicant. We maintain supermarket style food shelves from which we distribute the food. We measure the value of food distributions by pricing all goods with reference to retail food prices in southeastern Vermont markets.

All assistance is logged on a digital spreadsheet to show number of recipients and dollar value of assistance, and is kept with the paper applications for at least three years. All funds are distributed from a checking account maintained by the treasurer and the executive director. A summary of grants distributed is given to each town that we serve for printing in the annual report.

Line 5:

We operate a thrift store that sells 100% donated clothing and household goods. We do not value donations when received, but reflect the selling price as revenue at the time of sale. We sold $151,514 of such merchandise in 2015. Our total cost basis in inventory at beginning and end of year is zero.

Line 19:

Our primary mission is to distribute free food to individuals who meet our income guidelines and who cannot afford to buy food. We receive multiple donations of food from organizations, businesses and individuals, and we buy food from local suppliers. We do not record a value for donated food but instead record a value for food as it is distributed based on local retail rates. In 2015 we distributed food with a retail value of over $81,000. Our cost of that food was approximately $41,000.
