Richford Renaissance Corporation is local partner in three (3) limited partnerships with Housing Vermont, a non-profit affordable housing developer. As a volunteer board of directors and part-time property manager Richford Renaissance has created 51 affordable housing units within the village of Richford, Vermont, a small rural village on the Canadian border. RR has established a housing standard, maintained affordability and eliminated blight in the town center. Poverty is high and resources are few. Our activities allow people to age in place and meet daily needs at the local grocery store and health center housed in our renovated buildings. Families with children are within walking distance of schools.

RR's revenue is nearly all derived from services rendered to the management company hired by the partnerships. RR's services have assured a local voice, financial oversight, a high standard of housing and several part time jobs for local handy persons and grounds keepers.

Richford Renaissance has provided the connection to capital and expertise to create and fund these housing units. All activities support the mission to improve and maintain affordable housing.

Part I - Revenue is derived primarily from service contracts with Alliance Property Management, a manager of affordable housing projects.

Richford Renaissance has developed these projects as local partner with Housing Vermont, a state-wide non-profit developer of housing projects.

RR took on these service contracts to retain a local voice, assure full occupancy and to provide local maintenance and grounds keeping jobs. All work has been in support of RR Mission to improve and maintain affordable housing in a poor community.

1.16 Other expenses include: Supplies for building maintenance and grounds keeping; Directors and Officers Insurance; Liability Insurance and property tax on land.

Part II 1.24 Other assets include: Furniture and fixtures, tools and equipment, loans receivable from housing projects

1.26 Liabilities at 2015 year's end were 0.

1.28 Richford Renaissance is local partner in limited partnerships which owns third floor of downtown building containing 12 apartments of one and two bedrooms.
